PENITENTIARY RIOT

Maryland Governor Declines to Probe Prison Outbreak Tuesday, When 2 Were Shot.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13 .- Governor Ritchie today announced that there will be no investigation of the riot in the Maryland State penitentiary yes-terday in which two prisoners, after overpowering the guards and taking their guns, started a general struggle which was only ended when pelice arrived from this city.

There is nothing to investigate, stated Governor Ritchie. "It simply accentuates the need of the best warden possible. We'll have him soon, I

Two prisoners were shot during the rioting, but no attempt as a delivery was made. Davis Bender, a convicted murderer, and James C. Event. murderer, and James C. Evans, sen-tenced for robbery, were the ring-leaders in the affair, and three guards were badly cut and bruised when they were thrown to the iron floor of the tiers scuffling with the rioters.

The rioting did not spread among the prisoners generally, and the police had little difficulty in restoring order after capturing the two leaders.

Bender and Evans took the guards' guns and started shooting on the top tier in an effort to stampede all the prisoners. The trouble did not spread confined to the wire and brush shop, investigate reports of secret treaties office

> OSTON, Oct. 13 .- Eliot Wadsworth. resident of the Harvard Alumni Association for 1920-21, at a meeting of the board of directors here today. He will assume immediate direction of the revival of the Harvard Endow-ment Fund, of which, with Thomas W, Lamont, he has been joint chairman for over a year.

In spite of the fact that the endowment drive for $15,250,000 has netted pledges amounting to $12,389,712.28, Harvard is said to be facing another serious deficit. The trouble is that regime. A move is afoot to have serious deficit. AND NOT AFTER THE NEED HAS PASSED!

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Anna Heyward has some queer ideas and a bad bullet wound in her right leg. She has been keeping company with James Hamilton and yesterday she heard hat Hamilton was planning to jilt er. She mulled this over until 4 'clock in the morning, when she de-ermined to visit Hamilton and reconstrate with him.

She was crawling through a first-loor window, calculating a surprise, hen he was awakened by the noise nd mistook her for a burgiar. Drawnd mistook her for a burgiar. Drawing a pistol from beneath his piliqw, shot at the figure in the window. I dropped outside and crawled away. The girl managed to drag herself time and her mother notified the olice, who took her to a hospital and rested Hamilton.
